WALSH OUT FOR GOVERNOR

Formally Announces His Candidacy for Democratic Nomination this Fall.

WORCESTER STATEMENT

Lieutenant-Governor David I. Walsh of Pittsburgh today in Worcester formally announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

Walsh believes that in accordance with the State-wide call of the Democratic leaders and of the rank and file of the party it is his duty to run.

Duluth Wins Part of Its Rate Fight

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Duluth, Minn., was a substantial portion of its freight rate fight before the Interstate Commerce Commission today, when a resolution of class rates to that city from Eastern points was ordered and the great rates were held in the discriminatory industry's contention that rates on lake and inland traffic from the East ought to look at its wharves, however, were not sustained.

Cyclist Hits Girl and Is Fined $5

Little five-year-old Helen Smith of No. 22 Cottage street, Everett, while attempting to cross Church street at the junction of Broadway, in that city, was struck by a motorcycle and severely hurt. The machine was operated by Ernest A. Heath, thirty-one years old, of No. 9, Wallace court, Charlestown. He was placed under arrest and fined $5 for violating the machine without a license.

Orders Inquiry on Senator's Expenses

WASHINGTON, July 10.—The Senate Committee on Contingent Expenses today decided upon a widespread investigation of senatorial expense accounts as applied to telegraphic tolls. It was alleged in the Senate yesterday by Senator Nelson that Senator Ashurst had incurred government funds through charging his telegraphic account with personal messages. It is said many other Senators, both Democrats and Republicans, are offenders.

Southern China Quits Republic

CANTON, China, July 10.—A complete severance of political relations between northern and southern China was proclaimed here today. Business to be a minimum, and the revolutionary leaders are threatening to seize the government buildings.

Sinking Tow Boat Saved by Crew

Towboat Shaw of the Eastern Dredging Company was saved today after a two-hour struggle of her crew from sinking in old Fort Point Channel. The boat was caught in dredging the sand and with a tow rope ahead, submerged one of the iron struts of the bow stow bridge.

Militants Burn Torrance Mansion

LONDON, July 10.—Militant suffragettes resumed their "Votes for Women" warfare today. A mansion at Torrington in Lancashire was destroyed by fire with a loss of $25,000. At Birmingham several houses were set on fire and destroyed. Notices were burned about the hands trying to save the country.

Says Militancy Has Lost Women Ballot

CHICAGO, July 10.—The militancy of the English suffragette has cost her the ballot. Rev. A. C. Dixon, pastor of the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London, formerly of Boston, told a congregation at the Moody Bible Institute.

Post Card Joke Ends in Arrest

Coughlin of Charlestown Complains of Frederick Hynes.

Got a job? You will not go to work. These men get a job right away. Not, I will say, many more.

Because E. J. Coughlin of No. 19 Park street, Charlestown, objected to the above notice, he complained before the federal authorities against Frederick Hynes for sending defamatory postcards, reading to contemptible, to reflect upon his, Coughlin's conduct.

Coughlin received 61 notes recently from the post for State Representative. He somebody in a joke told him that he was to receive 61 letters and mail parcels. They have been coming frequently since June was held in $200.

U. S. Men Beat the Canadians in Doubles

Members of the House Naval Affairs Committee—majority of them—after inspecting the Charlestown Navy Yard today declared themselves emphatically in favor of a program calling for the construction of two battleships every year for the American navy.

Politics Dooms the McKinley Postcard

WASHINGTON, July 10.—The McKinley postcard is doomed to disappear. The features of the martyred President are to be removed to give way to those of Thomas Jefferson. Postmaster General Burdette has written to Senator Burton of Ohio that his decision in this regard is irrevocable, that the people's indorsement of the action of the Declaration of Independence in the last election justified the change.

Ask $1,200 for Prize Cow's Switch

CINCINNATI, July 10.—Hobbs Brothers of Kentucky, breeders of thoroughbred cattle, have brought suit against the Louisville & Cincinnati Pocket Cattle Company for $1,200 for the loss of the end of a switch of a registered Jersey cow. The complaint recites that the cow lost the end of her tail on route from Louisville to Cincinnati, making her vulnerable for prize winning or show purposes.

Abandon Town That the Canal Will Cover

PANAMA, July 10.—The closing of the Panama Canal which soon will be inaugurated by the rising of waters in Gatun Lake, has just begun with the abandonment of the police station. The town will be vacated as quickly as possible after August 1.

Milton Tax Rate Takes $150 Jump

The town of Milton today announced a 15 per cent increase in its tax rate. The town's expenses were $20,000 greater than last year, and assets $200,000 less, but a $2,500,000 increase in valuation prevented a greater rise in the tax rate.

Choked to Death By a High Collar

PITTSBURGH, July 10.—Harry D. Winger was choked to death by the collar he was wearing as he was overcome by the heat and dropped to the floor. He was dead in a few minutes.

2 WARSUP SCHEDULE FAVORED

Inspect Facilities of Charlestown Navy Yard for Building Dreadnoughts.

AGAINST FLORIDA STATEMENT

Members of the House Naval Affairs Committee—majority of them—after inspecting the Charlestown Navy Yard today declared themselves emphatically in favor of a program calling for the construction of two battleships every year for the American navy.

Some of the members declared they thought that the Charlestown yard could be easily improved and enlarged so as to be ready to build battleships, but that this would not be in line with the policy of the committee, which is to improve the navy, but to correct in connection with navy yard matters.

Congressman F. A. Britton of Illinois declared the lack of torpedoes in the navy to be a national disgrace. He said:

But Little Ammunition.
In the event of war the Navy Department has not on hand a sufficient number of torpedoes to supply one shot from each tube. There is but one round of ammunition so to speak. There is no more on hand than one torpedo per tube.

Our torpedo boats have made trips clear around the world without having had a single torpedo on board.

The output of torpedoes last year was 300, only one-third of which were made at the Newport torpedo station. When I get back to Washington I shall introduce an order asking for an appropriation of $400,000 to double the capacity at Newport.

Against Pensacola Station.

It was also the sentiment of the committee that the establishment of a general marine headquarters at Pensacola, Fla., as has been suggested, which would result in stripping the various navy yards of authority, would be unwise.

The program of the committee is in line with the official policy of the latest newspapers, which have consistently recommended the erection of two battleships annually.

The sentiment of the committee is that two vessels must be annually built in order to keep the American Navy up to its present standard. A majority of the committee will recommend that appropriations be made this year for the construction of two new battleships, which will cost approximately $15,000,000 each.

PLAN FOR COLONY IS REVEALED

Mexican Minister of Interior Arranging Concession for Huge Impouring of Orientals.

RECALL ITALIAN MINISTER

MEXICO CITY, July 10.—As a sequel to the anti-alien land agitation in the United States, the Japanese have made an adroit flank movement by arranging for a concession in Mexico on which to colonize 50,000 Japanese, within striking distance of the United States boundary.

The Mexican Minister of the Interior is working up the details of the plan, which is given prominence in the newspapers here.

The Italian Minister to Mexico has been recalled by his government. It was learned today that he secretly left here last night for Vera Cruz. Significance is attached to the departure of the Italian minister who, judging from the haste in which he departed was urgently ordered to get to Rome at the earliest moment.

This action is doubly impressive on account of the fact that Francis Storch, the British Minister, has been succeeded by another and will leave here for London in a few days.

Wilson Knows His Fate.
Despite the statement of United States Ambassador Wilson that he expects to return here in his official capacity following his conference at Washington with President Wilson it was learned here today that the ambassador secretly believes that his days of officialism are numbered.

Before his departure, he gave orders for the removal of a costly silver service and other valuables from the United States Embassy in a United States warehouse at Vera Cruz. The families of some of the American attaches of the embassy have been sent to Vera Cruz for safety. Vices for the American people are numbered.

WAVES GUN IN EMPLOYMENT OFFICE.

Dissatisfied with the position he had obtained from an employment office at 27 Washington street, Mikoyan Sigofsky returned to the place, drew a revolver and intended to shoot Morris Finn. He was sentenced to two months for assault and carrying a loaded revolver.

BOMB HURLED AT TRAIN NEAR PATERSON.

PATERSON, N. J., July 10.—A second attempt to wreck a passenger train on the Erie Railroad in the Shaw and district was made today when some one threw a bomb at a locomotive near Hawthorne.

Off for the frozen North today sailed out of Boston the Grenfell Mission schooner George B. Cluett, carrying sailors, girls, doctors, nurses, students, supplies and last but not least—though the smallest on board—Boston's famous little "snow baby," John Mason Little, 3D. Baby Little goes for his first visit to his birthplace at St. Anthony's, Newfoundland, where Dr. Wilfred Grenfell has his big hospital.

"Snow baby" Little is just one year old, having been born away up towards the top-of-the-world district in July of last year. He is the child of Dr. and Mrs. John Mason Little, Jr., and the grandson of the Boston real estate magnate. The "little" Little is already the pet of everybody on the Cluett.

The Cluett sailed from the old Gas House pier, which was crowded with society people today. As the schooner moved off into the harbor everybody aboard and ashore cheered and waved handkerchiefs.

Assumes Office to Find Deficit

Postmaster Crowley Has Little Surprise for His First Day in Office.

NEW YORK, July 10.—Major Robert Crowley, whose appointment as postmaster was confirmed in spite of the charges Mayor James E. O'Donnell preferred against the Major—took charge of the office today.

Two hours afterward he was asked to hear from two postoffice inspectors that there was a $135 deficit in the office's supply of stamps.

A clerk in the office was called into conference, but no arrest has been made. Joseph A. Lefevre was the last postmaster, but resigned when the department issued an order requiring postmasters to give all their time to the work.

Lillian Lorraine Asks Annulment

Wants Freedom from Man She Married Twice.

NEW YORK, July 10.—Lillian Lorraine, whose beauty has aided in making musical comedy along Broadway, has instructed Attorney Herman L. Roth to draw up a complaint to have her marriage to Frederick Drumheller annulled.

The complaint states that Miss Lorraine was grossly deceived in the man she twice married—the first time before he was legally freed from his first wife and the second time about three months ago. Her complaint cites much of the evidence given by Drumheller's first wife in their divorce suit in Chicago.

"He falsely and fraudulently represented to me," says the fair plaintiff, British intermediate, law-abiding and honest citizen. He concealed his true character." On June 15, she says, she deserted her after having lost the diamond ring off her finger.

Southern China Quits Republic

CANTON, China, July 10.—A complete severance of political relations between northern and southern China was proclaimed here today. Business to be a minimum, and the revolutionary leaders are threatening to seize the government buildings.

REFORM SURE IN SOMERVILLE 'PATROL' CASE

The prevailing sentiment throughout Somerville today is that never again will that city with little children accused of no crime be taken from their homes or their schoolhouses in a police patrol wagon.

Such a reform is assured, according to representative citizens, by the fact that the Aldermanic Committee on Public Safety has been authorized by the Board of Aldermen to consider a resolution inquiring into the "O'Neil" case. The Committee will begin its hearings early next week.

As a member of the Committee on Public Safety, Alderman Flagg said today, "I shall do everything in my power to bring about an official acknowledgment of this error, and guard against the possibility of its recurrence."

Ministers Enter Protest.
The indignation aroused by the way these innocent Somerville children were treated is not confined to laymen. The Rev. Westworth Stewart of the Baptist Church, Methodist Episcopal Church, lecturer on social subjects.

"The taking of children in patrol wagons through city streets is a gross custom. It belongs to the dark ages."

The Rev. George H. Hore, D. D., dean of the New England Theological School, Newton, "We should lead our city to abolish this practice. It would not cost much more to give an automobile. Politicians in the city generally have their idea of automobiles."

The Rev. J. P. Brand, local secretary of the International Reform Bureau, "I am glad the ALDERMAN is acting for this. We ought not to convey innocent children in patrol wagons. It would be well to have the Legislature take some action upon this, and have a patrol wagon that would save innocent children from this type of disgrace."

"Abominable Custom."
The Rev. James Abernethy, D. D., pastor of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, South Boston, "I sincerely hope the custom will be stopped. It may entail extra expense upon the city to use another type of conveyance, but it is money that should be spent in saving children from an experience which they are bound to speak about later in life."

The Rev. David M. Lockwood, associate pastor of Tremont Temple, "I have only one word to say. If we have juvenile courts to protect children, why do we, on the one hand, place them in patrol wagons when they are innocent?"

Thanks Hearst for Baltimore Fete Aid

BALTIMORE, July 18.—Mayor Preston, who has the intention of naming William Randolph Hearst as the star of the Star Spangled Banner centennial of next year, is evidenced by the following letter of which Mr. Hearst is in receipt today in answer to a letter stating that one of the Hearst papers and periodicals were on the disposal of the celebration committee.

"I thank you very much for your kind and patriotic offer to help along our Star Spangled Banner 104th celebration. Our publicity committee will furnish any suggestion, data or information required for the subject, telling how Baltimore proposes to celebrate the centennial of the Star Spangled Banner, the Battle of North Point and the bombardment of Fort Mifflin and a hundred years of peace between the English-speaking people."

Carnegie Transfers Fund to Scotland
LONDON, July 18.—The administrators of the Carnegie Duynslund Trust fund of $10,000,000, heretofore entrusted to the Carnegie Corporation of New York, has been transferred to Scotland. Its income is devoted chiefly to public libraries and church organs in Carnegie's native country.

Carpenter and Gem Dealer Bankrupt

Interest was caused in the Federal Bankruptcy Court when George Hoffman, a Maiden carpenter, filed a voluntary petition stating that while his liabilities were $44,000, his assets were only $4,000. Edmund H. Hurst of Wintonbury, a jeweler at No. 573 Washington street, Boston, stated that his liabilities were $32,000 and his assets $8,000.

Battery A Leaves for Camp on Cape

Battery A of Boston left today for the camp grounds at West Barnstable, preparing for the summer maneuvers. The command slept on a war footing on Tech. Park last night in hollow women's with guards posted. At West Barnstable Battery B of Worcester and Battery C of Lawrence joined them.

Police Clash in Hunt for Necklace

LONDON, July 18.—The police of London and Paris clashed today in the hunt to clear up the mystery of the $750,000 pearl necklace robbery. Scotland Yard took the case up to the Paris authorities. The latter say they were officially informed of the theft not by Scotland Yard but by detective in the employ of Lloyd's.

France Tries to Get Whitney Painting

PARIS, July 18.—Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, it is learned from Frederick Friessle, the American painter, has bought his "Before the Performance." He had hardly sold it when he had an offer from the State to buy it for the Luxembourg. Probably he will ask Mrs. Whitney to release him.

Berkshire Invaded by Woodpeckers

PITTSFIELD, July 18.—James Man-kill, telephone operator, reporting on the ravages of the Berkshires by an army of 3,000 red-crowned woodpeckers, says he caught one of them. Man-kill taught the bird to send by the Morse code, and today the woodpecker tapped his "O. K." as an important message passing over the wire.

Coxey Ready for Another March

NEW YORK, July 18.—"General" Coxey, who a few years ago led an army of the unemployed to the White House, is at the Waldorf-Astoria, getting the shins of war, he says, for another invasion of Washington. "General" Coxey says he does not approve of President Wilson's administration.

Hoke Smith Opposes Millionaire Charity

ATLANTA, July 18.—Senator Hoke Smith attacked the present vogue of wealthy men of the nation in an address before the Georgia Legislature in session here. "I would rather see the national government raise the money by income taxes and spend it for such purposes than to leave the people indebted to a class of men for great charities," he said.

8 Boston and Detroit club officials seem to be denying that any offer has been made involving a swap of Spinkoff for Cobb. It is possible so-called "logia" people are the kind that are really looking out for themselves? Cobb is playing for himself is necessarily playing for his club

SPEAKER has also been accused of not being averse to the limelight. Why should he? Think well of yourself or no one will think well of you, is a pretty good motto.

But the Detroit public thinks of such a deal, the question to be considered here is: How would the Boston public view such an exchange of players?

WOULD Cobb prove a more valuable man for the Red Sox than Speaker? Both of these stars have their peculiarities. Cobb is considered by many the greatest player in need of speed. They used to be called the "Speed Boys," but that title doesn't go any more. They need some faster men here and there.

SPEAKER is a favorite with the that matter. All ball players are favorites as long as they can deliver the baseball goods. When they cannot do that they are not favorites. Both Speaker and Cobb are delivering the goods nearly every day.
